Dear Mr. Tetlich;

RE: Porcupine Caribou Management Board - 2017 Annual Harvest Meeting Recommendations

Thank- you for the letter Porcupine Caribou Management Board (PCMB) recommendations that was submitted at the Annual Harvest Meeting (AHM) which was hosted in Inuvik, NWT February 14th and 15th, 2017.

The recommendations that the Porcupine Caribou Management Board presented to all parties have been reviewed by Na-Cho Nyäk Dun Lands & Resources Manager. The Actions by the board includes the following:

- Harvest Management Strategy to remain the Green Zone;
- Native User Agreements;
- Sale, trade and Barter Guidelines;
- Dempster Highway Signs- FNNND would like to review when completed;
- Encourage hunter participation in programs.

Additionally, we agree that in taking into consideration the extensive work on PCH efforts including the HMP, we support the PCMB recommendations for a jurisdiction/land claim process coordinated at a Federal level.

First Nation of Na-Cho Nyäk Dun is pleased to offer our support and commitment to these recommendations. However, we would like to review the signs before being displayed in accordance to our Traditional Territory Regulations.

If you have any further questions please contact dawna.hope@nndfn.com Lands & Resources Manager at 867-996-2265 ext. 144.

Sincerely;
